

INTRODUCTION

“My heart has been longing for the day when I will conquer my mountain. Today is that day and I have finally found what I was searching for.” – Mark Bajerski

After I wrote my book, ‘Diary of an Accidental Psychic’, I was overwhelmed by the reaction of readers thanking me for sharing the divine experiences of many people who have come to me for healing. The true accounts about the magical healing power of synchronicity and the many divine interventions that occurred in the lives of people from all walks of life, brought much hope and a greater understanding of how Spirit, the Universe, is constantly giving us messages and signs to help us on our journey.

We are all deserving of love, peace and happiness and the place most essential to finding all the happiness intended for us is – within.

In this, my first pocket book of miracles and empowerment, I have brought together a collection of powerful messages from Spirit, which is intended, for each and every one of us.

On reflection of each message, I discover my light, my way and inner voice. In these moments of stilling my mind and opening my heart to these words, I find my strength, my purpose and my determination to keep climbing my mountain. I find focus to do what is intended for me and learn to let go of issues that only we allow to burden our lives.

My prayer is that you will also feel the power of these words from Spirit; that they will heal your world, remind you of all the strength you hold within and of the beauty that you bring to this world. How essential you are to the Universe.

My hope is that you will shine your light even brighter through these pages of light and love, to feel, to heal and to digest each empowering thought that takes you to new paths and greater adventures with each giant leap of faith.

My pure intention is that this pocket book of thoughts can be used in a wonderful and inspirational way. Perhaps each day you might like to choose a way to ask Spirit to show you your message on one (or more) of the pages. Close your eyes and open the book at a page that tells you to stop, look for the first number you see on your daily travels and open the book on this page - find a way that is magical to you and, through these practices, you are already finding your deeper connection to Spirit.

Most of all, feel the love intended for you in each message and live your life with the deepest sense of love and gratitude.

“Everything is as it should be. Where you are, is exactly where you are meant to be.”
